Differentiated Instruction:

POWERFUL INTERVENTIONS
for AT-RISK READERS K-12

About Our Seminar Leaders

Barbara Hinds

Educators love the fun, inspiration, and multitude of powerful ideas Barbara provides. She consistently receives rave reviews. As one teacher said, "Barbara could give a workshop on making peanut butter and jelly sandwiches, and we'd be flying out the door full of enthusiasm to be the best sandwich makers in the world!"

Linda Queiruga

Linda's talent, joy, humor, poignantly inspirational stories, and powerful practical strategies prompted one teacher to write: "This workshop was absolutely the most powerful and inspiring training I have ever been to! I can't wait to get back to school to witness the dawn of my new teaching career."

Kay Douglas

Kay's deep love of teaching and children, powerfully positive energy, and depth of knowledge earned her the "Most Inspirational Teacher" Award at Western Illinois University. As one seminar attendee said, "Kay was just awesome, very motivational, energetic considerate and, above all, knowledgeable."

"My lab is up and running for 6 weeks, and I'm already seeing a 2-year gain in some of my 7th and 8th graders. I am so excited for them!"

Jennifer Jordan, Reading Teacher, Etowah, TN
